

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING, CRITICAL
REFLECTION AND PEER SUPPORT:
Making the placement year work for others

Dr Jenny Willis

SCEPTre Fellowship 2008/09

CONTENTS

	Page
CONTENTS	ii
Tables and Figures	iv
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY	v
BACKGROUND TO THE RESEARCH	1
EMERGENCE OF THE RESEARCH QUESTION
Some conceptual issues	2
Student feedback on their PT experience	3
The changing context of Higher Education and PT	6
How to make the PT experience of some work for the benefit of all?	7
RESEARCH METHODS AND INSTRUMENTS
Existing data sources	7
Assessment of Professional Training (P-credits)	7
Revised data sources	13
DATA ANALYSIS AND FINDINGS
P-CREDITS
Assessment by the Supervisor	15
Assessment by the visiting tutor	15
Student Report	16
Presentation	16
Attendance of Briefing/Debriefing	16
Additional Academic Work	16
STUDENT COMMENTS, PTCC SURVEY PLACEMENTS 2007/08
Identification of categories of learning	18
Comparison of perceived learning outcomes by Faculty	19
Personal Qualities	19
Generic Skills	21
Subject-specific Skills	23
Subject Knowledge	25
Synergy with other models of professional learning	28
Summary of findings from Student Feedback 2007/08	35
LEARNING TO BE PROFESSIONAL: STUDENTS' NARRATIVES	36
Jessica	40
Will	41
Maham	42
Adam	43
Miyanda	44
James	45
Ming	50
Summary of student narrative discussion	53
CONCLUSION
1 P-Credits	55
Assessment by the supervisor	55
Assessment by the visiting tutor	55
Student reports	56
Presentations	56
Attendance at Briefing/Debriefing	56
Additional Academic Work	56

2 Student Feedback, Placements 2007/08	57
Personal Qualities	57
Generic Skills	58
Subject-specific Skills	58
Subject Knowledge	58
3 Student Narratives
Perceived learning outcomes	60
Consistency of emergent learning outcomes with learning trajectories	60
7 Sample narratives	63
Replicating the work experience on campus	64
Can we identify and draw benefit from the student PT experience in order to enhance the curriculum?	65
Recommendation 1	66
Support tools	66
Recommendation 2	70
What can we do at Level 3 to build on and extend the development of those who undertook a placement year?	70
Recommendation 3	71
Recommendation 4	71
Recommendation 5	71
Recommendation 6	72
What can we do to enhance Level 3 for all students, including those who did not undertake a placement?	72
Recommendation 7	72
Recommendation 8	73
Recommendation 9	73
Supporting the professional development of those without placement	73
Recommendation 10	74
The desired and actual outcomes of this research	74
REFERENCES	76
ANNEXES
A Student Professional Training Survey 2007/08
B Sample of qualitative data from student survey 2007/08
C Staff interview schedule
D Student interview schedule
E Example Employers' employment Review Form
F Example Professional Training Period Tutor Visit Report Form
G Summary of recommendations

TABLES AND FIGURES

Table		Page
1	Emergent themes compared with the USEM model	5
2	Assessment of PT by Programme, University of Surrey 2009	10
3	Example of Learning Outcomes framework for interview discussion	12
4	Personal Qualities cited in Student Feedback 2007/08	19
5	Personal Qualities identified in Student Feedback by Faculty	21
6	Generic Skills cited in Student Feedback 2007/08	22
7	Generic Skills identified in Student Feedback	23
8	Subject Specific Skills cited in Student Feedback	24
9	Subject Specific Skills identified in Student Feedback	25
10	Knowledge Acquired as cited in Student Feedback	26
11	Forms of Knowledge cited in Student Feedback 2007/08	28
12	A typology of Workplace Learning Trajectories (Eraut 2007)	29
13	Personal Qualities and Learning Trajectories	30
14	Generic Skills and Learning Trajectories	31
15	Subject Specific Skills and Learning Trajectories	32
16	Knowledge and Learning Trajectories	33
17	Overview of Trajectories and Learning Outcomes, Student Feedback	34
18	Emergent Contributors to becoming Professional	37
19	Emergent Themes and Learning Trajectories	38
20	Narratives and Learning Trajectories	39
21	Codes for Subsets of Learning Trajectories, Student Narratives	47
22	Student Narratives 2008 by Subsets of Learning Trajectories	48
23	Student Narratives 2008 Including Story 15	52
24	Perceived Learning Outcomes by Faculty	59
25	Sample support tool 1	67
26	Sample support tool 2	69
Figure		Page
1	Conceptualisation of the research	13
2	Overview of intended research process and instruments	17
3	Actual research process and instruments	18
4	The Rope of Professional Development	49
5	Examples of Cross-Sections of Professional Development	49
6	Cross-Section of the Professional Development Rope for Narrative 15	53
7	The rope of Professional Development for Individual Narratives	64